Dublin, September 11.

THIS Day arrived his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Grace was received at his Landing by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin: The Foot Forces in Garriſon, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets through which his Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horſe, the Battle-Axe-Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidſt the Acclamations of the People, with the uſual Ceremony, to the Caſtle; where, in the Council-Chamber, his Grace took the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and received the Sword from their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices. After which, the Great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and anſwered by the Vollies from the Regiments on Duty which were drawn out upon College-Green: And his Grace, repairing to the Preſence Chamber, received there the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction upon his ſafe Arrival to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.

Hampton-Court, September 13.

By an Expreſs which arrived here this Day from Mr. Colman, His Majeſty's Miniſter Plenipotentiary at the Court of Parma, dated the 15th Inſtant, N. S. we have Advice, that the Dutcheſs Dowager Henrietta of Parma, having declared that the Symptoms which had given Reaſon to believe that ſhe was pregnant, were ceaſed, and that ſhe is not with Child, General Stampa, the Imperial Commiſſary and Plenipotentiary, did on the 14th take Poſſeſſion of the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia in the Name of the Infante of Spain Don Carlos; an Imperial Notary, accompanied by the proper Officers, reading the Edict publiſhed for that Purpoſe in the Balcony of the Houſe of the Governor of Parma, which is ſituated in the great Place of that Town; where ſome Troops of Horſe and Companies of Foot were drawn up; great Numbers of the Inhabitants being preſent at that Solemnity. The General alſo wrote a Letter the ſame Day to the ſeveral Tribunals of Parma and Placentia, acquainting them therewith, and requiring the ſeveral Magiſtrates to continue to diſcharge their reſpective Offices till further Order.

Letters from on board His Majeſty's Squadron, commanded by Sir Charles Wager, dated the 26th of Auguſt, give an Account, that they were then in Altea Bay near Alicant, ſailing towards Barcelona; where they are to be joined by the Spaniſh Fleet, which is to take in at that Port the Land Forces deſigned to be introduced into Tuſcany.

Whitehall, June 10, 1731.

The Lords Commiſſioners for Trade and Plantations having been commanded by His Majeſty to receive all Propoſals that may be laid before them, For preventing the pernicious Practice of Running of Woll from England and Ireland; and to conſider of and propoſe proper Methods to prevent ſuch Practices for the future, and lay the ſame before the Houſe of Peers in the Beginning of the next Seſſion of Parliament: Theſe are therefore to inform all Perſons who may have any ſuch Propoſals to make, that the ſaid Lords Commiſſioners for Trade are ready to receive the ſame at their Office in Whitehall. By Order of their Lordſhips,

Alured Popple.
